

PRINT NAME _____

EDITING / AP Exercise No. 2

Sections D...E...F

01. The fireman's fiancé said she was unable to get satisfaction from the EEOC on her case, even though she turned into a filibusterer.
02. The disabled doctor loved using a dixie cup to drink his favorite brand of draught beer, imported from down under.
03. DALLAS, Texas (AP) After a long Delta Airlines flight, the weary pilot dove into the hotel pool, but it was as cold as a deep freeze.
04. After taking fire from the Nip machine gun, the Marine soldiers and flyers totally destroyed the position with grenades and rockets.
05. The FDA drew extensive flack for not approving the non-diary expresso additive.
06. "Did the magnet effect the floppy disk"? asked the Ecuadoran editor in chief.
07. The emigrant flautist came to America and was allowed to forego much of the naturalization process, doing it by email instead.
08. The sultry divorcee ate hot dogs and french fries on the 4th of July, insuring she would need some antacid later.
09. The frontrunner for the Pulitzer in the friction category, a book many are dyeing to read, is John Updike's novel entitled "The Terrorist."

Sections G...H...I...J

10. His managers found it incredulous that an imposter could obtain a high-level job at J.C. Penny Co. Incorporated.
11. The Guardsman drove along I-35, hoping to find some historic markers or sites mentioned in the Guinness Book of World Records.
12. The flighty girl was indiscrete with her goodwill; but for some, her gifts were like Heaven.
13. In the judgement of the jury, the serial killer will be hung instead of being sent to jail.