

PRINT NAME _____

EDITING / AP Exercise No. 3

Sections G...H...I...J

01. Justice of the peace John Sloane said its too bad he didn't have some Irish Coffee to go with his English muffin.
02. The guerilla chief's wife got one the hotline to find a vaccine to innoculate her 18-month-old infant.
03. HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) – His first grader was gung ho to play a part in the Internet video, hoping to become a Cyperspace star.
04. The physician, a graduate of John Hopkins University, constantly jibed his hospital colleagues, irregardless of their seniority.
05. The Harris County Grand Jury indicted him for a murder committed during a breakin.

Sections K...L...M...N

06. The clerk ordered two million pencils, priced at three cents each, for the U.S. Navy's Seventh Fleet and its thirty-two vessels as it prepared for a third trip to the Persian Gulf.
07. The milktoast flotilla captain, a former Leatherneck, was embarassed that his vessels could not exceed 15 knots per hour.

08. They went to K-mart in Minneapolis, Minn., for some Linoleum polish and other knickknacks.
09. Major Gen. John Stone said the new Pershing II missile has a twenty-kiloton warhead, but it is not a MIRV.
10. The Little League lefthander, his team's number two starter, had a no-hitter among his five shutouts.
11. On her first day of class, the teacher noticed that none of her tenth-grade students were in their proper seats.
12. Although he gave it a noble effort, his opponent received the lion's share of the votes in the mayoral race by an almost 2-to-1 margin.
13. She finished her masters thesis at 12 a.m. midnight.
14. The lecturer gestured mightily as he stood behind the podium.