

PRINT NAME _____

EDITING / AP Exercise No. 5

Sections Q...R...S

01. The naval flotilla escorting the Queen Mother steamed through the Dardenelles strait, battling rain storms and heavy swells.
02. He offered various opinions to refute the realtor's contention that home sells are on the wane in the Houston area.
03. Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn and Raisa Gorbacheva were among those lecturing on the lessons learned from the Russian revolution.
04. Its earnings ravished by soaring fuel costs, Qantas Airline reported losses of $5 to $7 million in the first quarter of 2006.
05. The African-American sailors launched a SAM missile after an inbound enemy aircraft was detected on Radar.

Sections T...U...V...W...X...Y...Z

06. Upset at having to work on Washington's birthday, the ThreeM worker packed a sack lunch and filled his Thermos with soup.
07. The VFW official told the chapter members wounded in the Persian Gulf war that the Veterans Administration would assist them recover.

08. When the 75mm howitzer ran out of ammunition, the Army lance corporal loaded his 45-caliber tommy gun and retreated by zig-zagging through the woods.
09. The National Hurricane Center in Pensacola, Fla., issued a hurricane warning when the storm reached sustained winds of 70 mph.
10. Copies of his lawsuit, Jackson vs. Middleton, will be sent to members of the firm via Videotext at 7 p.m. tonight.
11. Members of the UAW and UMW voted by a two to one margin to back the under-dog Democratic candidate.
12. A long ton of t-shirts actually weighs less than a metric ton.
13. The 12-year-old youth worked out with some five-pound dumbbells and then did 50 situps.