

PRINT NAME _____

AP Stylebook Exercise 02 (Approximately 50 errors)

Sections D...E...F

01. A member of the fourth estate reported that the Federal Court ruled that the FCIC insured more machines and less people.
02. It was rumored that the senator gave a death-bed confession to having had an extra-martial affair with his secretary, who has Down's Syndrome.
03. The man heaped fulsome praise upon former First Lady Laura Bush's southern accent.
04. Daylight Savings Time begins in April and ends in October.
05. On July 4th, the Hoover dam was polluted with dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane, which caused a fowl smell.
06. "The Export Import Bank of the U.S. and I do not see eye-to-eye," Def. Atty. Lonnie White said, "because the data was not amassed."
07. A drunk sailor carrying a duffle bag to the Four-H-Club told the director that he was guilty of forcibly raping the receptionist and partially destroying her car.
08. The astronaut returned to earth after eating an english muffin.
09. The Dali-lama was accused of feather bedding when he sent a flyer advertising for six full time employees.
10. Survivors of the Dunkerque battle gathered at Elgin Air Force base.
11. The english setter and the expresident viewed the fiord.

Sections G...H...I...J

12. The girl said she saw the Holy Ghost as she was cleaning the steps of the Holy Sea in Rome.
13. Duncan Hines was a gourmand; he appreciated fine food, but he was indicted for killing a waiter who had hemmoroids.
14. The 18-year-old girl had a good time playing intra-mural football with the 2-year-old infant.
15. Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce measured the ips with a metal guage.
16. The Idaho man who claimed his ancestors were captured by Indians was considered an imposter because his story was incredulous.