

AP Stylebook Exercise 03

Sections G...H...I...J

01. Don't be hyper-critical of my grammer; I learned it in Guadeloupe, Mexico.
02. The Island of Luzon is famous for its goodwill toward gypsies who completed the tenth grade.
03. He graduated from Duke University, an Ivy League school.
04. A group were going on Iberian Airlines of Portugal, but the General Manager's infantile paralysis worsened.
05. He enquired about her harelip, and she told him that irregardless, she wanted him to visit.

Sections K...L...M...N

06. She lay the book on the table during a meeting of the Texas legislature.
07. "Time Magazine" readers are fully-informed, but mailmen believe it's a lot of malarky.
08. Students were speaking cajun and chinese as they lit candles to celebrate the appointment of the Majority Leader to the navel office.
09. Low for the day was -5 degrees when Micah Emory 2, a national guardsman in the Korean Conflict, won the Congressional Medal of Honor.
10. Wade Emory pleaded nola contendre to the controversial issue.
11. The body of the chief justice of the Untied States usually lies in state in the Rotunda in the Capitol.

12. The news media is ready to oppose anyone or anything, especially the National Organization of Women, that threatens its freedom.
13. The pastor said Mass at 12 noon, and scheduled High Mass for 12 midnight.
14. I heard Beethoven's "Serenade for Flute, Violin and Viola" during a ceremony at the Lincoln memorial at 12 noon.
15. They noticed that the company was not growing like it should.