

PRINT NAME _____

AP Stylebook Exercise 04

Sections O...P

01. The cheerleader waved a fluffy pom-pom at the football game, which was attended by 5,000 alumnuses.
02. The First Ward representative sent protestors to the Palestinian Liberation Organization, which is known also as the PLO, but it was only a pretext.
03. All of Gonzalez' cattle and three of the Jones' horses were stolen.
04. The artist lay down on his palette and pulled up the sheets; he was tired after handling the press conference.
05. A representative from the New Orleans police department said that a possum bit all of the Jones and two of the Gonzalez's.
06. The Republican Primary will be conducted several months after purim, said the Press Secretary.
07. An ocean-going ship left it's port at 8 p.m. tonight.
08. Three tablespoonsful equals one percent of the formula.
09. More than 1,000 persons visited Andrews and Diannes estate.
10. Prior to voting on proposition five, Prof. Jonathan Price, a democrat, said his politics is his business.

Sections Q...R...S

11. Rev. Jonathan Price crossed the Rio Grande River en route to the Smithsonian Institute.

12. The five and seven year olds spilt Scotch whiskey on the deck of the QEII.
13. Paul picked up a racquet and headed for the tennis courts at Harvard, one of the Seven Sisters, where he hoped to set a new record.
14. A tiger escaped from the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Baily circus and ravished a restauranteur's cafe in San'a in Yemen.
15. The town's sewage system clogged with smouldering waste from two football stadii last Summer.